There were no unions to protect your working conditions or social security to pamper you, so if you lost an arm on your shift, tough shit. Not only did you lose your job but you couldn't find another one because you were handicapped and useless, and you had to rely on church charity to barely survive or become a beggar.

Back when I was a child (when dinosaurs roamed the Earth), coupons had no expiration date, groceries were individually priced and everything had to be done (including the redemption of coupons) by a cashier manually. Then they started doing everything by UPC codes and people have been trying to figure out new ways to scam the system ever since!

Many moms preferred to ditch the hospital gown in favor of their own clothes. Memories of your stay in the hospital or birthing center may always be a bit of a blur, but you can document the experience for posterity with a few simple tools. My camera, with extra batteries, was a lifesaver! I packed ...

Why does my child need a booster seat? Although some of us have fond memories of riding around in the back of the family station wagon unrestrained, at that time parents didn't realize just how dangerous it was. Today people drive much more than they used to, and kids spend a lot more time in cars ...

Re: VACCINE LEGISLATION. Dear Legislator: My name is Tetyana Obukhanych. I hold a PhD in Immunology. I am writing this letter in the hope that it will correct several common misperceptions about vaccines in order to help you formulate a fair and balanced understanding that is supported by accepted vaccine theory and new scientific findings.

Background. By the 18th century, "white" had become well established as a racial term at a time when slavery of African-Americans was widespread. David R. Roediger has argued that the construction of the "white race" in the United States was an effort to mentally distance slaveowners from slaves. The process of officially being defined as white by law often came about in court disputes over ...

A value-added tax (VAT), known in some countries as a goods and services tax (GST), is a type of tax that is assessed incrementally, based on the increase in value of a product or service at each stage of production or distribution. VAT essentially compensates for the shared services and infrastructure provided in a certain locality by a state and funded by its taxpayers that were used in the ...

I had 3 embryos transferred and with my first scan at 5 weeks 4 sacs were seen. At my 12 weeks scan, the sonographer said 2 were identical, however, my obgyn said they cant be as they all have their own placentas and amniotic sacs, I am unsure what they are as one embryo that splits as far as I understand is known as an identical twin.
